Spreading kindness and good deeds throughout Vineyard has been a theme for the city this holiday season. We want to know about any act of kindness you see or perform - big or small! Delivering cookies to a neighbor, shoveling someones sidewalk, or picking up the park! Snap a photo and share it on social media with the hashtag #vineyardlove (tag @vineyardcity) or send your photo and act to info@vineyardutah.org.

SHERIFF'S MESSAGE

With the holiday season approaching and an increase in packages being delivered, the Sheriff's Department would like to remind you to remove those packages from your porches as soon as possible to prevent them from being stolen.

Please report any suspicious activity to the Utah County Sheriff's Office at 801-794-3970.

HERITAGE COMMISSION CORNER

VINEYARD'S STRONG SENSE OF PATRIOTISM

At this time of year, in which we remember our Veterans with deep respect and admiration it is well that we remember that this fine community of Vineyard has a rich heritage in offering its young men and women to the defense of our nation since its early years. Beginning in World War I and continuing through the dark war years of World War II, the Korean War, the Vietnam War, and into the major military conflicts of recent history, Vineyard has had its young men and young women actively serving in every branch of the military, National Guard and even the Merchant Marines.

A unique war-time contribution by Vineyard not often remembered by many today is the tremendous sacrifice made by 40 of the original families, in having to sell their prime farm land and homes, which they had homesteaded, cleared and tamed into what had become the fulfillment of lifelong dreams. Approximately 1,500 acres of this farm land were sold to the Columbia Steel Company, so that an inland steel plant could be constructed by the U.S. Government, in cooperation with Columbia Steel that could produce steel to meet the ever increasing demands of World War II. These families' contributions to the war effort demonstrated a unique act of patriotism and sacrifice.
